NEWS OF THE TOWN

PHOENIX WEATHER.

The following weather conditions prevailing in Phoenix yesterday were reported by the United States weather bureau:

Barom. pressure	5:30 a. m.	5:30 p. m.
Tem. dry bulb	29.95	29.91
Tem. wet bulb	48	52
Tem. maximum	71	73
Tem. minimum	48	44
Rel. humidity	72	78
Wind, direction	SW	SW
Wind, velocity	2	1
Precipitation	0	0
State of weather	Clear	Clear

NOT A CANDIDATE.—Miss Claire Frazier announces that she positively declines to be a candidate for carnival queen.

NEW DEPUTY SHERIFF.—Sheriff D. L. Murray yesterday appointed Henry Willis of the Agua Caliente neighborhood, deputy.

WAITING TELEGRAMS.—The Western Union Telegraph company have undelivered telegrams for W. John Murphy, E. W. Osborne and R. A. Colter.

TOO OLD FOR HIM.—Supervisor Norton yesterday found a pair of gold spectacles in a morocco case. They were too "old" for him, so that he left them with Clerk Gray to be returned to the owner.

FRATERNAL VISIT.—A goodly delegation of Phoenix Odd Fellows visited Temple Lodge No. 8 last night, escorting Grand Master H. C. Hitchcock of Globe, who is making an official tour of the territory.

FIFTEEN DAYS.—Joe Wilson, an impetuous tourist, was brought before Justice Johnstone yesterday on the charge of vagrancy. The facts warranted fifteen days of retirement in the county jail.

A GRAND-DAUGHTER BORN.—Mr. H. C. Yaeger yesterday received a telegram from Mrs. Yaeger at Vicksburg, Miss., informing him that their daughter, Mrs. F. A. Cowan, had just given birth to a daughter.

BITTEN BY A DOG.—The little son of Thomas D. Bennett was badly bitten about the face last night by a vicious dog. The lacerations were carefully dressed as soon as possible, and while they are very painful, no serious results are feared.

AN ABSENT BUNCH OF KEYS.—Yesterday afternoon Marshal Hooker lost a bunch of keys which had been left in his possession by Recorder Jobs. He is anxious to get the property back before the recorder returns today and will treat the finder right.

A BUSY MAN.—Harry George was the busiest man south of Mason and Dixon's line and west of the Mississippi river yesterday. A day or two ago he leased the Occidental hotel. An astrologer told him the stars said it should be opened today. It is open.

HELD TO ANSWER.—E. R. Beard, who has been doing a brokerage business in forged time checks, was examined yesterday by Justice Johnstone and held to the next grand jury, for further and more explicit explanation of his methods. He was held on two counts, $200 bonds each.

ADMITTED TO PROBATE.—The will of Frederick Carney was admitted to probate yesterday and under its terms Elizabeth Carney, Frederick Carney, Jr., and Warren H. Davis were appointed executors. The deceased was a resident of Marinette, Wis., but had invested in real estate in this valley.

NO END OF QUAIL.—Deputy Sheriff Charles Stankard lately returned from a brief hunting trip on the south side of the river, in which he shot 150 quail. Or, rather, he didn't shoot that many. He shot some and then realized what a needless waste of ammunition it was. He killed the rest with a club.

THE CRITENTON HOME.—The board of directors of the Florence Crittenton home has elected the following officers for the coming year: H. Wilson, president; C. H. Davidson, secretary; Lloyd Christy, treasurer; A. J. Edwards, attorney. Board of associate members: Mrs. F. W. Thode, Mrs. J. C. C. H. Boon, Mrs. D. D. Ambrose, Mrs. McAndrew, Mrs. A. H. Thompson.

A GOLF CLUB.—The work of organizing a golf club was begun yesterday. Four subscription lists were circulated and a large number of members were enrolled. It is the wish of the promoters to procure a club of about seventy-five members. A meeting will be held at the board of trade rooms on Saturday night, at which those interested in the game are invited to be present. The links will probably be established on Central place north of the city.

LIVELY DEAD BEAT.—A Mexican sauntered into a restaurant in the reservation district last evening. After putting a good meal under his shirt, he sauntered out again without offering to pay for it or making any apology. Joe Bush soon put his pinchers on him and sent him to jail by Officer Francis. When searched he had in his clothes a pocket knife two inches long and a silver dollar, thanks to the gold standard.

ROBBED A TENT.—Several days ago the tent-house of Fred Tait about four and a half miles north of the city was robbed of a handsome pair of spurs, a bondo and other bric-a-brac.

more or less useful around a ranch-house. A Mexican named Huera was suspected and a warrant for his arrest sworn out. Deputy Sheriff Moore went after the accused yesterday afternoon and lodged him in jail last evening. He is like other citizens hereabout, in that he has a record. A portion of that record can be found on the books of the territorial prison, where he served a term for horse stealing.

MORE TROUBLE FOR ACAL.—Troubles never come singly, and this old maxim is just as true with an Indian as anyone else. Acal, a native son, whose ancestors have named the hills of Arizona for many generations back, to his early years made the mistake of stealing a horse. He made the further mistake of getting caught at it and subsequently served a term in the pen. These early indiscretions seemed to place him under a cloud of suspicion ever afterward and when another Indian was found in an intoxicated condition a few days ago, his downfall was traced to Acal, who was held to answer to the next United States grand jury. But even after he was thus excluded from the public view the evil deeds he left behind kept coming to light. Yesterday the only way the officers could relieve their consciences and satisfy themselves they had done their full duty, was to drag Acal from the county jail to Commissioner Johnstone's court, where he was again bound over to the grand jury for selling liquor to Juan, another Indian.

THERE'LL BE MORE ALFALFA.—Alfalfa seed, worth 6 cents a pound a month ago, is worth 3 cents now at the beginning of the planting season, the highest it has ever been at this time of the year, though last year in December it was worth 12 cents a pound. It will probably be more a month or six weeks from now. The only explanation offered regarding the present high price is that the average of alfalfa in the valley is to be greatly increased. Farmers are beginning to believe that the demand for alfalfa in the last two years has not been temporary or accidental and wholly dependent upon the California drought, but that the needs of the valley and the territory within a shipping radius will make it permanent. It is beginning to be proved to be so with all other farm products of the valley. The supply of barley has been found to be inadequate. A couple of months ago it could have been bought at 75 cents. Now it brings $1.50. There was a fine offering for a local speculation, but nobody saw it.

THE A. O. U. W. CELEBRATION.—At their hall over Walker's drug store the A. O. U. W. will celebrate this evening. Phoenix lodge will meet promptly at 7:30 and transfer its regular business and at 8 o'clock it will confer the degrees on the candidates for the new lodge. Immediately thereafter the officers for the new lodge will be elected and installed and thereafter the whole company will partake of a banquet to be prepared by the Phoenix lodge in honor of the dedication of the first new lodge under the two jurisdictions of Arizona and New Mexico. The thirty-first anniversary of the order will be the special order of the banquet at which addresses will be made by several prominent members of the order. The opening charge list for the new lodge includes the following who have been examined: John C. Adams, C. H. Anderson, J. H. Alexander, Thomas D. Bennett, Joseph C. Boyd, G. B. Crocker, Dr. W. H. Duffield, W. D. Dodgson, C. H. Davidson, J. O. Dunbar, S. J. Darby, Jr., A. J. Edwards, M. J. Foster, George L. Groves, S. Hackett, Charles Higgins, Frank H. Lyman, H. I. Latham, C. A. Larson, W. Lintbeck, J. Howard Long, W. J. Murray, 2. P. Manker, Louis C. Menken, D. McDermott, Joseph Mitchell, Dr. Otto E. Plath, Sylvanus Palmer, B. F. Porter, Jr., J. W. Spear, J. W. Stankard, S. N. Selp, Harry D. Seville, Frank K. Seville, E. M. Skinner, F. W. Wood and E. P. Wilson. There are others to be examined today, and there may be additional names added on recommendation of those already examined if approved by the organizing officer, Mr. Kinsey, who is to be found at the Ford hotel.

SEASONABLE

DRESS MATERIALS

'CREPONS.
Have come forward to the universal call for a stylish fall material. The demand for them among the leaders of fashion and the scarcity of the material in the market this season is a sure indication of their popularity. We are showing many new effects.

HOMESPUN.
This highly meritorious production is strictly in line with the latest conceptions in woven fabrics of this season. It is within the reach of the consumer at popular prices. The light, dark and natural grays make it a staple material. Still its rough surface effect gives it a very stylish appearance. The supply this season is not adequate to the demands for this new fabric.

PLAIDS.
A choice offering in both foreign and domestic Plaids promises to take a leading position in the present season. The reversible Plaids are a new and attractive material and one which will be greatly sought after for both skirting and golf capes. Our assortment is both choice and varied.

SPECTACLES.

Eye-helpers, right eye-buffers and headache makers if they are strong. Who is to know in time to let you skip the mistakes? Not the average spectacle seller; his mission seems to be to get your nose harassed with a pair that strikes your fancy and draws your cash. If I find after careful examination that you do not need glasses I will surely tell you so.
